

Comórtas Hata Acla

Ted's, Cashel
An Déardaoin 2ú / Thursday 2nd - 18.00

During the 19th century a top hat was left on a post at the pier in Polranny for Achill men to wear if they were going to Westport or Castlebar, in a bid to hide their poverty.

The men would do their business in town and leave the 'hata' back on the post at the pier when they were getting the boat back to the island. This competition is to honour that old Achill tradition.

I rith an naoú haois déag bhí sé mar nós ag na daoine hata ard a fhágail ar phost ag an droichead i bPoll Raithní le haghaidh na daoine ó Acaill a bhí ag taisteal go dtí an baile mór.

Chaith siad an hata seo nuair a bhí siad ag imeacht ón oileán mar bhí siad ag iarraidh a mbochtannas a choimeád faoi rún.

Nuair a bhí a ghnó déanta aige agus é ag filleadh abhaile, d'fhágadh an fear an "hata" ar an bpost arís. Eagraítear an Comórtas seo in onóir an traidisiún sin.
